FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Announcement from the CEO: New key positions for the Indian market fulfilled

India: Mr. Alok Sinha takes over as Country Head for Frauscher Group of companies in India and Mr. Akhilesh Yadav as Managing Director for Frauscher Sensor Technology India Private Limited

We are delighted to announce that key strategic positions for the Indian market have been fulfilled, with the notice being effective as of this moment.

Mr. Alok Sinha, takes on the role of Country Head, representing our three companies in the region: Frauscher Sensor Technology India, Frauscher Sensonic India & Frauscher Rail Signalling Solutions. Mr. Alok Sinha, the founding force behind setting up and leading Frauscher Sensor Technology in India is now a member of the Global Steering Committee of Frauscher.

Mr. Akhilesh Yadav, takes on the position of Managing Director for Frauscher Sensor Technology India Private Limited. Mr. Akhilesh Yadav possesses wide ranging experience of the Indian railway market, having been involved in various senior leadership roles throughout the industry, including the Chief Operating Officer for Frauscher India. India remains a key strategic region for Frauscher due to its growth potential and the abundance of possibilities in all spheres of the Indian rail industry. Frauscher is deeply committed to meet the needs of the Indian rail market and delivering its renowned and highly innovative solutions to all customers within the segment.

Together with them, I am sincerely looking forward to a very positive and constructive cooperation with our Indian customers.

Best regards,

Michael Thiel CEO
